

Scuttlebutt Bulletin:

2nd Marine Air Wing Band to March in Holyoke's St. Patrick's Day Parade Sunday

The 2nd Marine Air Wing Band, from Marine Corps Air Station Cherry Point, N.C. has agreed to march in the Holyoke St. Patrick's Day parade following performances at Providence College, Providence, R.I., and B.M.C. Durfee High School in Fall River earlier this week.

The Parade kicks off at Sunday at 12 noon at the Kmart Plaza on Rte. 5 (Northampton Street) and winds its way to Holyoke City Hall on High Street. Forty bands, numerous floats, and dignitaries, including this year's Grand Colleen Ashley Tucker of Holyoke and her court, are featured in this 57th edition of the parade.

Weather is expected to be dry and in the mid 50's.

2nd Marine Air Wing Band